

GOD, SEX & THE UNIVERSAL LONGING

Presented by Christopher West

Monday, November 21, 2011, 7 PM

What is the true meaning of our desires? Is Christianity a hindrance to our desires or can it be a key living them to their fullest glory?

In this talk, renowned author and speaker Christopher West will be presenting on Pope John Paul II's revolutionary Theology of the Body- a bold, organic and contemporary understanding of human love in the divine plan. Enter into the "why" behind the "what" of the Catholic understanding of human sexuality and how it illuminates life's deepest questions.

Christopher West is a faculty member of the Theology of the Body Institute and one of the most sought after speakers in the Church today. His books "Good News About Sex & Marriage, Theology of the Body Explained, and Theology of the Body for Beginners" have become Catholic best sellers. Christopher has lectured on a number of prestigious faculties, offering graduate and undergraduate courses at St John Vianney Seminary in Denver, the John Paul II Institute in Melbourne, Australia, and Creighton University's Institute for Priestly Formation in Omaha. He and his wife Wendy have five children and live in Lancaster County, PA
